Raising Support:

Contact Christian World Outreach for sample fundraising letters and response cards with return envelopes. When writing fundraising letters give specifics about your trip telling where, when, what and who. Keep your letter short and to the point making sure you ask them to pray if you want them to pray or give financially if you want them to give money. Also, give a deadline so supporters know when support must be in. Put your name on each response card and include them with each letter. You can also be creative and look for other methods of raising financial support for this mission experience.
